1. The children in the Greek Youth Home at Uncin (N51/ F 34) came from towns and villages along the Greco-Albanian and Greco-Yugoslav border.* Many of them remembered the town of Janina which they described from their own experience as being a large town. There were children of Macedonian nationality in the home. The children of the two groups mutually disliked each other, which often resulted in quarrels and fights.

2. In addition to the names listed previously, [redacted] the names of the following children living in the Uncin home:

Kleantis (fmu)	14 year old boy of small build and features, intelligent, spoke good Czech.
Zdukos (fmu)	14 year old boy of medium build, light brown hair; had no relatives in Iron Curtain countries.
Chamaribidis Michalis	15 year old boy, slim, dark complexion, black hair. Was sent to Zambark in August 1951 to work in a factory.
"Partisana"	8 year old girl whose true name is unknown. She was allegedly found by the partisans in an abandoned house.

3. Among the children there is an apparent desire to keep up their Greek and Macedonian mother tongues. They like to sing national songs and perform national dances. The Czechoslovak régime, however, is trying to make them learn Czech to facilitate their political re-education. The older children and the Greek teachers experience considerable difficulties in learning the Czech language.
